The enclosed information is on the EPA's draft policy guide, including the current status of the document. Part I of the document describes what we know about the policy guide from 1988 to June 22, 1993. Part II includes notes from a June 23, 1993 meeting of the Interagency Committee on Smoking and Health, in which issues dealing with ETS and the workplace were discussed. Issues in which the Committee appeared to be taking an action are highlighted at the beginning of Part II. References for Part I appear in Appendix A and a list of materials available to the audience at the Committee meeting can be found in Appendix B.

We hope the information is useful.
